Richard Ward-Roden – Musical Director

The Showbiz Pops Orchestra was founded in 2007 by two distinguished conductors and musicians long associated with the world of musicals, both in this country and abroad, Richard Ward-Roden and Stuart Calvert,

They have brought together leading musicians and guest artists from across the West End, with the aim to celebrate the early 20th Century Musical scores of stage and screen known to many as the “golden age” of Musical Theatre.

By supporting this vision, you will help to ensure that The Showbiz Pops Orchestra is able to bring to its audiences exciting and innovative programs designed to entertain both the seasoned enthusiast and casual music lover alike. Sponsorship is vital in order to finance featured artists, commission arrangements and to facilitate acquiring lesser known works.

Join us in helping to support the SPO to bring you, your friends and family, the best concert programs, concert after concert.
